Context

Our college Sir Gurudas Mahavidyalaya is located in Muraripukur near Ultadanga. The road on which the college Building is located is named after the great Indian revolutionary Biplabi Barindra Nath Ghosh. Barindra Nath Ghosh was the younger brother of Rishi Aurobindo Ghosh, one of most important revolutionary of modern Indian history. In earlier days he was closely associated with revolutionary ideas. He founded the secret organization Manickatala, Kolkata. This organization of Manickatala was a secret place where bombs were manufactured and arms and ammunition were collected to combat the British Raj. Our college is situated in that very place with such a rich legacy.

Sir Gurudas Bandyopadhyay

Sir Gurudas

Bandyopadhyay

was the Bengali Indian judge of the Calcutta High Court. In 1890, he also became the first Indian Vice-Chancellor of University of Calcutta. He received his education at the Oriental Seminary, the General Assembly's Institution (now Scottish Church College), the Presidency College, Kolkata and at the University of Calcutta.

Sir Gurudas had served as a professor at the Scottish Church College. He was the first Indian to be appointed as the vice-chancellor of the University of Calcutta.

He was nominated to the post on 1 January 1890 and remained in office till 31 December 1892. He became a distinguished eminent judge of the Calcutta High Court, and was knighted by the British government on 22 July 1904. He also became one of the teachers of Bengal National College of which the great freedom fighter, Aurobindo Ghosh, was the principal. He made notable contributions to the spread of education by making sure that Narkeldanga High School got raised to secondary standard. There is a prestigious post in the Department of English of the University of Calcutta named after Sir Gurudas Banerjee. The professor who holds this post comes to be known as Sir Gurudas Banerjee Professor. He wrote several books on thoughts on education and social life of Colonial Bengal:

1. A Note on the Devanagari Alphabet for Bengali Students, 1893.
2. A Few Thoughts on Education, 1904.
3. A Few Thoughts on Education, New Edition, 1910.
4. The Education Problem in India, 1914
5. Gnan o Karmo, 1910.
6. Reminiscences, 1927.

Objective

In the time of Azadi ka Amrit Mahotsav, when every corner of our nation was celebrated this great moment, our college also wanted to be a small part of it as an academic institution. In this time of darkness, when youths are not too much concerned about our heritage and history, as an educational institution, we thought it is our moral duty to spread the knowledge about our ancestors.

OUR MISSION

Decoration of college building in memory of Indian Personalities

We have designed our floor Plan and decoration of each class room as a great Wall of Fame. The rooms are named after the name of great personality who built our nation. To honor the value of great past, we have named our rooms after Indian revolutionaries, philosophers and pioneers. Starting with national figures such as Mahatma Gandhi, Baba Saheb Ambedkar and Birsa Munda, we move on to our Bengali luminaries such as Rabindranath Tagore, Bankimchandra Chattopadhyay, Swami Vivekananda to Prof. Satyendra Nath Bose, Dr. Kadambini Ganguly and Sir Ashutosh Mukhopadhyay. We have named our Teachers' Room after Vidyasagar and the room of our Principal upon Sir Gurudas Bandyopadhyay. We have a total of 37 such 'Kakshas' or room.

Cultural Activities

Cultural activities make learning a more enjoyable experience. It plays an important role in students' overall development. They allow students to discover and express their gifts, boosting creativity and improving social and communication skills. We celebrate and observe both national celebrations like “Jana Gana Mana Adhinayak” (Republic Day), “Guru Pronam” (Teacher’s Day), “Beti Bachao o Beti Padhao”, “Hathe Hath” (Rakshabandhan), “Mukto Akash” (Independence Day) and regional celebrations, such as “Archarya Swarone” (Gurudas' Birthday), “Basanta Utsav”, “Agonomi” (Pre-Puja Celebration), and many more.

Saraswati Puja

Saraswati Puja is celebrated with much fanfare in our college. We observe a two-day festival with entire concentration and devotion to keep the spirit of Cultural and Traditional Significance, Academic Inspiration, Community Building, as well as Stress Relief and Well-being. Our students, instructors, non-teaching staff, principal, and student union not only celebrate, but also feast on Khichuri and other Bengali delicacies.

“Education is not the amount of information that is put into your brain and runs riot there, undigested, all your life. We must have life-building, man-making, character making assimilation of ideas. If you have assimilated five ideas and made them your life and character, you have more education than any man who has got by heart a whole library.”.....Swami Vivekananda
