READ,REJOICE REPEAT: Encouraging Reading Habit at 4th Kolkata District Book Fair, Bidhan Sishu Udyan,Ghosh Bagan, 1 No. Bidhan Shishu Sarani, Kolkata -700054

Date: 17.12.2023 TO 24.12.2023 (8days)

At 4th Kolkata District Book Fair, on the theme “Commemorating 100th year of Satyajit Ray’s Abol Tabol”. Quizzes, Picture matching and reading poems on Abol Tabol were planned and prepared for interactive activities with the objective to encourage reading habit. Most visitors enquired about the stall with surprise because we had nothing to sell. We said, “Books are sold only when books are read. We have come to encourage reading.”

Huge participation from NSS Volunteers, students, faculty members, Principal and dedicated staff of our college till 8.00P.M for 8 days at Stall No.62 made the programme a huge success. We received showers of blessings and encouragement from visitors for taking this initiative when smartphones and gadgets seem to be replacing our habit of reading books. It was an experience worth mentioning.

The fair was held from 17th December to 24th December 2023, every day from 11 a.m to 8 p.m. The fair was attended by different educational institutes and publishers who showcased their books and journals and represented their institutions.

Sir Gurudas Mahavidyalaya’s theme for the fair was READ, REJOICE, REPEAT: Encouraging Reading Habit with Sukumar Roy’s book 100 years of “Abol Tabol” and 24 motivational books that students should read.

The NSS Unit organized quizzes, motivational talks, career-related talks, and roadmaps to success for the visitors. The discussions also included reading habits with the visitors. A projector was set up to display the 24 recommended motivational books and the college’s various achievements at the stall and conduct the creative and innovative events on Sukumar Roy’s book 100 years of “Abol Tabol”. Slide Show on “Most Important books everyone should read” was put up using a projector by IT Club also. Book-marks were given as encouragement. Book exhibition on Sukumar Ray and his contribution along with books by Sri Subhendu Dasmunshi were an essential part of the event. A selfie zone was set up on various interesting themes from “Abol Tabol”. Teachers actively involved in the event were Volunteers of NSS Unit, Students, Members of NSS Unit, Sir Gurudas Mahavidyalaya, HODs of departments and other faculty members. The fair was a great opportunity for students to learn about different educational institutes and publishers. The event provided a platform for students to interact with publishers and learn about the latest books and journals. The college’s theme for the fair was well received by the visitors, and the quizzes, motivational talks, and career-related talks were informative and engaging. The discussions on books reading habits were insightful and helped students understand the importance of reading.

The Theme was represented with craftwork by Dr. Suchismita Majumdar, P.O. NSS Unit & Librarian, Sir Gurudas Mahavidyalaya. The projector set up to display the 24 recommended motivational books and the college’s various achievements at the stall was a great addition to the fair. The technical help was done by IT Club, CS Department under Sri Debashish Barman. The Creative displays and book marks were prepared by Sri Subend Dasmunshi, Department of Bengali, Sir Gurudas Mahavidyalaya. The active involvement of NSS volunteers, faculty and students in the event was appreciated and their contribution made the event a grand success.

In conclusion, the event held at Bidhannagar Sishu Udyan was a grand success. The event provided a platform for students to interact with the community and publishers to promote reading habits.
