Report on Communal Harmony Week Observation at Sir Gurudas Mahavidyalaya (19th Nov to 25th Nov, 2021)

The National Communal Harmony Observation Week was observed in India from 19th November 2021 to 25th November 2021. The week-long observation aimed to promote the spirit of communal harmony, national integration, and peace among people of different religions, castes, and creeds. The Flag Day on 25th November and Quiz on Indian Culture and Society were also a part of the week-long celebration.

Inaugural Address:

The Inaugural Address for the National Communal Harmony Observation Week was given by Dr. Manishankar Roy, Principal of Sir Gurudas Mahavidyalaya, and Dr. Shinjini Basu, Coordinator of IQAC. In his speech, Dr. Roy emphasized the need for communal harmony in the country and the role of educational institutions in promoting communal harmony. He stated that educational institutions should take the lead in promoting communal harmony and creating awareness among students about the importance of peaceful coexistence. Dr. Basu also highlighted the significance of the week-long celebration and urged everyone to actively participate in the events.

Activities:

During the National Communal Harmony Observation Week, various activities were organized in educational institutions, government offices, and other public places. These activities included:

Seminars and workshops on communal harmony, national integration, and peace.

Competitions like essay writing, painting, and poster-making on the theme of communal harmony.

Cultural programs showcasing the rich cultural heritage of India.

Distribution of pamphlets, brochures, and other literature on communal harmony.

Flag Day celebration on 25th November, where the national flag was hoisted, and people took a pledge to uphold the values of communal harmony and national integration.

Quiz on Indian Culture and Society, where participants were tested on their knowledge about Indian culture, traditions, and history.

Conclusion:

The National Communal Harmony Observation Week was a significant event in promoting the spirit of communal harmony and national integration in the country. It provided an opportunity for people of different religions, castes, and creeds to come together and celebrate the diversity of India. The Flag Day and Quiz on Indian Culture and Society were also a part of the celebration, emphasizing the importance of patriotism and knowledge about our rich cultural heritage. The success of the week-long celebration highlights the commitment of the people towards communal harmony and peaceful coexistence.
