REPORT ON THE PROGRAM

On Thursday, January 18, 2023, at 2:30 pm, in Room No. 07, the Department of Political Science and IQAC conducted an Awareness Generating Programme. Mrinal Kanti Mukherjee, the Officer-in-Charge of Manicktala Thana, led a discussion on the subject of Basic Understanding of Legal Provisions. The institution's principal, Dr. Manishankar Roy, welcomed everyone to the platform.

He went on to talk about F.I.R., General Diary. What distinguishes these two from one another? What rights do children and women have? What are the rights of women in the workplace and in the home? About an investigation into a child's unexplained death after falling from the ninth story, he also mentioned a few examples. What queries did the police officer have about how they conducted their investigation? How the general public reacts and perceives the judicial system. The operation of the police system. What are an investigating officer's bounds? The session covered each of these topics in detail.

Students asked a lot of questions and were very animated throughout the Q&A period. The female pupils deserve special attention because of their increased curiosity regarding domestic violence experienced by women. A thorough examination of the 498 section's benefits and drawbacks took place during this session. The head of political science, Dr. Dipannita Sanyal, gave a vote of gratitude to end the seminar.
