Overview

The dopamine dose to the snapshots of anyone's picturesque Kolkata winter memories is its iconic hallmark, the Kolkata International Book Fair. Apart from this annual magnum opus, many small book fair events are organised round the year in the city as Calcuttans are known bibliophiles. This winter at the heart of Kolkata one such Book Fair is going to be organised by the Rani Birla Girls' College on January 9 and 10, 2024 from 10.30 am to 04.30 pm. The joint partners in this venture are Netaji Nagar Day College, Women's Christian College, Sir Gurudas Mahavidyalaya, DumDum Motijheel Rabindra Mahavidyalaya, Vivekananda College for Women, Sammilani Mahavidyalaya and Vidyasagar College for Women. This programme will be inaugurated by eminent academician Dr. Pabitra Sarkar, Chief Guest, and renowned poet Miss Mandakranta Sen, Guest of Honour. A Book Fair as a display or exhibit of books by a group of publishers or book dealers promotes sales and stimulates interests among the visitors and readers. In the above- mentioned event, these formal aspects of a book fair will be augmented by the Chief Guest's address and Guest of Honour's deliberation on the theme of the fair: "Books in Hand: A Digital Detox". This will be followed by fun and attractive activities like food and handicraft stalls, and many competitive events. Thus, let us join our hands together with a positive hope to make this programme a grand success.

ACTIVITY	DATE	PARTICIPANTS
ORGANISING BOOK FAIR AT RANI BIRLA GIRL'S COLLEGE UNDER MOU ACTIVITY WITH OTHER COLLEGES,KOLKATA	09.01.2024	STUDENTS OF SEM 1, 2023.

Objective

The primary objective of organizing a book fair at the college premises, in collaboration with other colleges, is to promote reading culture among students, provide access to a diverse range of books, and foster an environment that encourages learning and intellectual growth. The event aims to expose students to a variety of genres, authors, and educational materials, including academic, non-academic, and career-oriented books, while also facilitating networking opportunities with peers from other institutions.

Outcome:

1. Enhanced Reading Culture: The book fair can stimulate interest in reading by offering students a wide selection of books and genres, potentially encouraging them to develop lifelong reading habits.
2. Access to Diverse Resources: Students can explore and purchase books that may not be available in the college library or local bookstores, thereby expanding their access to knowledge.
3. Collaborative Learning Environment: Bringing together students from different colleges creates opportunities for exchange of ideas, discussions, and shared learning experiences.
4. Networking and Collaboration: The event provides a platform for students to interact with peers from other institutions, fostering a sense of community and potential future collaborations.
5. Skill Development: Additional activities, help students improve skills related to organising, problem solving, critical thinking, writing, publishing, and research.

6. Support for Academic and Personal Growth: By including books that cover a wide range of topics, the fair can support both academic needs and personal interests, aiding students' overall development.

7. Encouragement for Local Authors and Publishers: The event can also serve as a platform to support local authors and publishers by showcasing their work to a young audience.

Overall, the book fair helped to create a vibrant, educational event that goes beyond traditional learning methods, helping to broaden the intellectual and cultural horizons of the student community.
