Report :

The Department of Computer Science and the IQAC at Sir Gurudas Mahavidyalaya organized a workshop titled "Google Workspace". Mr. Debashish Barman delivered an insightful talk on the use of daily office software in a cloud environment.

Workshop Highlights:

- Topic: "Google Workspace"
- Speaker: Mr. Debashish Barman.

- Audience: Approximately 45 students attended the session.
- Date :3.12.2024

The attendees found the session highly informative and thought-provoking. The speaker effectively addressed all queries and encouraged participants to actively engage in learning basic computer knowledge. The seminar not only provided knowledge but also fostered a collaborative environment for networking among participants.

Acknowledgments: We express our gratitude to Mr. Debashish Barman for his valuable contribution. We also extend our appreciation to the IQAC and the Department of Computer Science for their efforts in organizing this successful workshop.

The workshop proved to be a significant step towards enhancing computer literacy and promoting the use of cloud-based office software among students.
